OBITUARY

Mrs. Louis Morin.
Death came suddenly Sunday evening to Mrs. Louis Morin, at her home in Montville. Mrs. Morin had been making a call on her way home from work and had been carried to her residence, where she died soon after. Mrs. Morin was a native of Lowell, Mass., and was the wife of Mr. Louis Morin, who was a well-known merchant in Montville. She is survived by six children, Joseph, Albert, Lillian and Laura Morin of Montville, Mrs. Edward Morin of New London, and Mrs. J. L. Phillips of Greenfield, Mass. She also leaves three brothers, Adolphus of New London, Frederick of New London, and Henry of New Haven, and five sisters, Mrs. Park Reed of East Lyme, Mrs. Patricia Peasey of Waterford, Mrs. Charles Tibbs of Niantic, Mrs. John Gray of Montville, and Mrs. Flora Blinck of Niantic.

Mrs. Wm. M. Burdard.
Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson Burdard, widow of Dr. William M. Burdard, died at Montville on Saturday after a week's illness. Mrs. Burdard was the daughter of Dr. John M. Burdard and Mrs. Carmichael Robertson and her family was for many years connected with the medical profession in Montville. Her husband died several years ago. One son, Robert M. Burdard, survives. She also leaves a sister, Miss Anna Robertson.

Mrs. Burdard lived in Montville all her life and was one of the best known and most highly respected residents of that town. She was a member of the Montville Congregational church and took an active part in its activities. Her death is the cause of sorrow to a large number of friends.

James A. Kilroy.
James A. Kilroy, 58 years of age, died Monday morning at his home in Montville. Mr. Kilroy had been ill for a month. Mr. Kilroy was born in Boreas and was the son of John and Ellen McNicoll Kilroy of Boreas.

Mr. Kilroy was a farmer and for years was employed as a farm hand at the Winslow Williams farm in Yantic. Of late he had been in the employ of the owners of the Winslow Williams farm.

Surviving are his wife, who was Mrs. Abbie Kane, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Katherine Kane. There are also two brothers, Mr. H. H. Kilroy, of Boreas, and a sister, Miss Eleanor Kilroy of Boreas.

FUNERALS

At 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was held in St. Patrick's church, with Rev. Myer J. Gartin as celebrant. Mrs. F. L. Farrell sang. Kindly Light, at the close of the mass. The bearers were J. Hickey of Plainfield, John D. Devoy of Boreas, and Frank Scanlon of Brooklyn, N. Y. John Halpin of Waterbury and Joseph Hickey of Worcester. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, and a committal service was read by Father Galvin.

Undertakers Cummings & Ring had charge of the funeral.

Mrs. Joseph W. Gilbert.
At 5 o'clock Monday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Joseph W. Gilbert was held at her home, No. 23 Williams street, with a large attendance of relatives and friends. The service was conducted by Rev. Samuel H. Jones, D. pastor of Park Congregational church. This (Tuesday) morning the body will be taken to Ellington by Undertakers Cummings & Ring.

Mrs. Louis Vaska.
The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. (Carr) Vaska, wife of Louis Vaska, who died Wednesday afternoon at her home in Blackstone, Mass., will be held Friday morning with a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Paul's church at which Rev. Thomas P. Smith was celebrant. Rev. P. J. Macdonald and Rev. John Donohue will assist. Burial was in St. Paul's cemetery, Blackstone.

Mrs. Vaska was born in Collingville, Mass., and was married to Mr. Vaska about 36 years ago in Stafford Springs, this state. Besides her husband she leaves a son, John, of Blackstone, and two daughters, Miss Mary E. Vaska of Blackstone and Mrs. G. C. Burdick of West town street, this city. She also leaves two brothers, John Carr of Pittsfield, Mass., and Frank Carr of Ind., and two sisters, Mrs. Rose Carr of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. John Carey of Stafford Springs.

Prof. Henry R. Monteth.
The funeral of Prof. Henry R. Monteth of Connecticut Agricultural College was held Monday afternoon at Storrs. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends.

During the funeral hour classes at the college were suspended. Prof. Monteth was professor of History and English at Storrs college for over thirty years. He was very popular with the students and will be greatly missed at the college.

LISBON FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION IS FORMED

The Lisbon Fish and Game Association was formed Monday evening at an enthusiastic meeting of fishermen and hunters of that town in the Lisbon town hall. James Graham was elected president of the new association. H. J. Kendall vice president and Albert A. Rist secretary and treasurer.

The association organized with a membership of nearly 20 and it is expected that the membership will be materially increased.

VANDALISM IN MEN'S PUBLIC TOILET ROOM

Theft of fixtures from the men's toilet room in the basement at the court house last night resulted in a complaint against Joseph J. Fienla Mondino. He is seriously considering looking up the room against the general public so that those who use it would have to call for the key at the desk at police headquarters.

Within a short time fixtures in the new men's toilet room have been torn from the wall and carried off.

Robins Have Arrived
West Side residents reported seeing robins Monday on the lawn of Charles B. Carpenter's residence at East Gate street. Robins were also seen in the Cliff street neighborhood Monday.

Outage Meetings.
Central Baptist prayer meetings this (Tuesday) evening are to be held at the following places: homes of F. L. Arnold, 56 Cliff street; G. A. Ashby, 111 Broad street; Miss Purvis, Sandyville avenue, Preston chapel.
